

Please leave the Wisconsin No-Call list just the way it is! There is nothing more annoying than to be interrupted at all hours of the day by people trying to sell me something I don't want or need. If I want something from their company, I will call them.